Description of Copyrighted Work: A personal photograph posted on my Facebook profile on June 21, 2020. I am the subject of this photograph and the owner of the Facebook account on which it was posted. This photograph was shared only with Facebook friends and was never licensed or authorized for use by any third party.

URLs of Infringing Material: <https://fibernetworksolutions.net/craig-housley.html>

Description of Infringement: The website operator, David J. Koch, downloaded my personal Facebook profile photograph without my knowledge, consent or authorization and created an unauthorized watercolor-style derivative image using my likeness. This derivative image is published prominently on the infringing URL listed above alongside false and defamatory content about me personally.

Koch gained access to this photograph by deliberately cultivating a false friendship with my family — friending both myself and my wife on Facebook under the pretense of reconnecting as old acquaintances. During this period he systematically downloaded personal photographs from our private Facebook pages for later unauthorized use. Upon discovering his true intentions we blocked him on all platforms — immediately revoking any access he had to our private content.

I have never authorized David J. Koch or fibernetworksolutions.net to download, reproduce, modify, or display my photograph or likeness in any form whatsoever.

Additional Context: This DMCA notice is filed in conjunction with a separate notice already filed by my wife Ingeborg "Inga" Housley under this same ticket ABU-149339. Koch has stolen and created unauthorized watercolor derivative images from personal photographs of both myself and my wife — two separate copyright violations on the same website. The following additional complaints have been filed regarding this website:

- DMCA complaint filed with Cloudflare — Report ID: bd10d8782e78845d
 - Harassment complaint filed with Cloudflare Trust & Safety — Report ID: 6f37a9db70e53905
 - Complaint filed with FBI Internet Crime Complaint Center — May 2026
 - Two abuse complaints filed with PRLog
 - This matter has been referred to internet defamation legal counsel
